

To make most verbs show action that has already happened, add ed.

Example: work worked

If a verb ends in a consonant preceded by a short vowel, double that consonant and add ed.

Example: chop chopped

If a verb ends in y preceded by a consonant, change y to i and add ed.

Example: bury buried

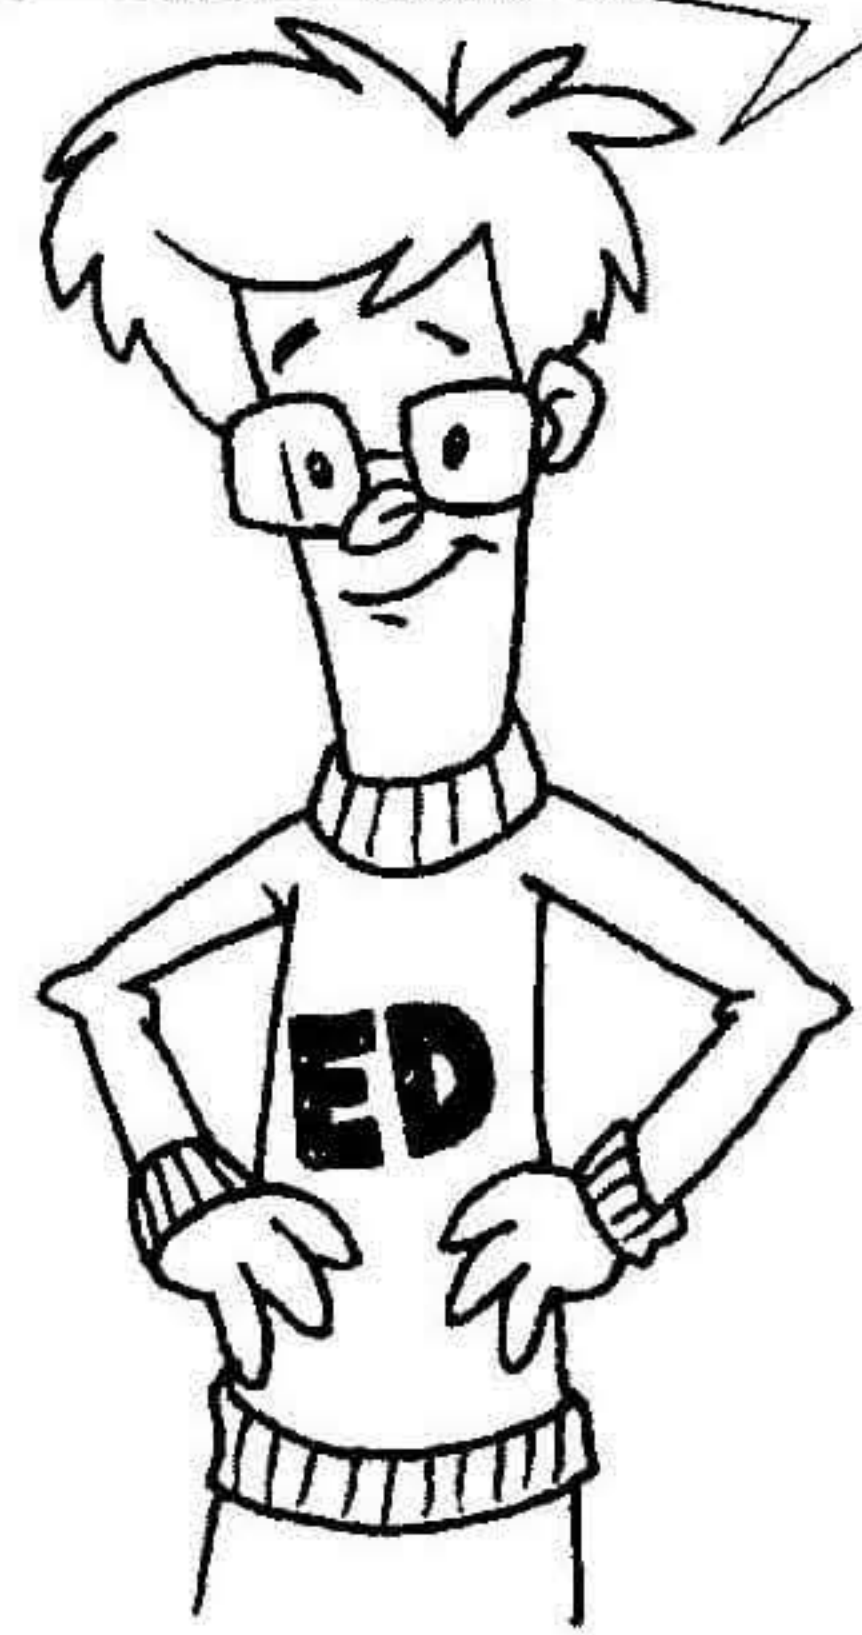

If the verb ends in e, add d.

Example: prove proved

Irregular Verbs: The spelling of some verbs is changed in order to show past action.

Examples: come came eat ate grow grew

Having no neck has its pluses...
I can put on a necklace, and later in the day it becomes a stylish belt!
